A MESSAGE FROM OUR FOUNDER

Lora Lynn Snow, Executive Director

The 2025-26 Ohio Valley Symphony season is almost upon us. Mark your calendars now and get your season subscription so you can experience the magic of live music at every single one.

Internationally noted conductor, François López-Ferrer will be back on the Ariel Opera House stage as he leads the OVS through Double Delight on September 13 with Cincinnati Symphony's principal cellist, Ilya Finkleshteyn performing Brahms Double Concerto for Violin and Cello along with his violinist wife Evin Blomberg also a member of the CSO. The orchestra will also perform Shostakovich's cheeky and charming Symphony No. 9.

Join us November 1 for All Hallows' Eve when Matthew Troy leads us in a musical celebration of All Saints Day with Wendel's Ride of the Headless Horseman, Gounod's Funeral March of a Marionette and Khachaturian's Masquerade Suite as part of an evening of musical tricks and treats.

Maestro Steven Huang's annual Christmas Show on December 6 is a perennial favorite of audiences young and old with carols and songs both new and familiar. Tickets sell out fast so be sure to purchase extras when you subscribe! December is also our annual Maestro for a Moment Fundraiser competition when community members vie for the chance to conduct the OVS in Sleigh Ride. Every dollar is a vote for your favorite candidate and helps support The Ohio Valley Symphony with your tax deductible donation.

Maestro Peter Stafford Wilson takes us to the British Isles for an evening of Celtic Dreams on March 21 with an evening of music from Ireland, Scotland and England. Concertmaster Manami White performs Vaughan Williams The Lark Ascending and the OVS performs Malcolm Arnold's Scottish Dances, Leroy Anderson's Irish Suite and the evocative Shropshire Lad by George Butterworth.

People everywhere will be celebrating America's 250th birthday in 2026 and the OVS has commissioned Tim Berens to write a special selection celebrating the life of Harriet Tubman for American Rhapsody with the Ohio Valley Symphony "A Call to Freedom" on April 25. Tim's poignant arrangement of Amazing Grace that was recently featured at the grand re-opening of the Notre Dame Cathedral will be sung on the Ariel stage by vocalist Mandy Gaines along with other selections as part of the nation's festivities. Be a part of the creation of another live recording for later release on American Public Television!

Every concert ticket includes a 6:45 p.m. Pre-concert Chat on the 3rd floor with the conductor and soloist of the evening, as well as a Post Concert Reception for you to meet the artists.
